

SENATOR BOHLKE: ...and many men would call and use to get that information before a woman becomes pregnant. I think that the public information part of this bill is one reason that it is much stronger than what we...

SPEAKER BAACK: Time.

SENATOR BOHLKE: ...had before. There is no commitment in the other bills to have a public information campaign to get this information out to people. If we continue to say our main agenda...

SPEAKER BAACK: Time.

SENATOR BOHLKE: ...and what we want to do is good information then I don't see why we would resist the 800 number or the public information campaign.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Bohlke. Senator Witek.

SENATOR WITEK: Mr. Speaker, members of the body, I guess I want to clear up a few things that I said the last time on receiving medical advice and I want to draw people's attention to the fiscal note that we had passed on 110 several days ago. In the fiscal note, on page 4, it states that a board-certified OB-GYN medical consultant to assist the Department of Health in developing objective information describing methods of abortion procedures of commonly employed, medical risk associated with each procedure, possible detrimental psychological effects of abortion and the medical risks commonly associated with carrying a child to term. So I had already approved, and anyone who had passed 110A has already approved, a board-certified OB-GYN medical consultant to be working with the Department of Health on this information. I guess that...saying a board-certified OB-GYN medical consultant and saying that they will consult with the American College of Obstetrics and Gynecologists and the Nebraska Obstetrics and Gynecological Society is a different thing than saying that we will get a board-certified OB-GYN to go ahead and consult on this, so this was...this was my concern with this bill on the OB-GYN. And also, if you look on page 3 of the fiscal note, scientific...we're supposed to have a scientific review committee. We approved 4,544 dollars for a scientific review committee of five to nine members who are broadly representative of this state to assist the Department of
